FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to "THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA," a corporation under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Association.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

IN presenting the Third Annual Report of the Philadelphia Association, the Managers desire to convey to the public, a more definite conception of the scope of our benevolence, and the means by which we hope to make it effective. We feel confident, that if we can bring this home to the apprehension of our sisters, there will be such a hearty response to our call for help, that neither money nor laborers will be wanting for carrying forward our work on a much larger scale, and to more beneficent ends.

The number of female operatives engaged in the various avocations open to women in Philadelphia, may be estimated at sixty thousand, nearly half this number being employed in manufacturing pursuits. The object of the Women's Christian Association is, to meet this large class of workers by an organization at least as large. We wish to go to them with "our feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace," and our hearts filled with the spirit of love and sympathy. We wish to give them a moral support such as every individual needs in the battle of life. By encouraging virtue, we hope to prevent vice. If we do not "raise the fallen," we would "cheer the faint," and save them from falling! To do this on a scale at all commensurate with the demand, we need a very large increase in our contributing membership. When our list of annual subscribers, of one dollar a year, shall equal the number of female operatives, we shall be able to maintain many Boarding Houses, and many Dining and Lodging Rooms, in sections of the city now greatly in need of them. Every one who contributes a dollar, gives with it a moral force, which, in the aggregate, will become a mighty power for good.

When we review the work of the Association during these three years, the conviction is forced upon us, that we have before us a very large field, which we alone can occupy, and which the Christian women of Philadelphia ought to enter upon at once.

The anniversary held in the Arch Street M. E. Church was an occasion of peculiar pleasure, by reason of the manifest unity of Christiansentiment in the exercises. We cannot forbear making mention of the zeal of each of the clergymen on that occasion. The Rev. Henry W. Warren, the pastor of the church, who presided over the meeting, gave an unwonted charm to the exercises by his appropriate remarks. The Rev. Dr. Newton, of the Episcopal Church; Rev. Dr. Breed, of the Presbyterian; Rev. Dr. Henson, of the Baptist; Dr. T. W. J. Wylie, Reformed Presbyterian; Rev. James C. Wilson, United Presbyterian; each, in his turn, uttered hearty words of cheer, presenting in a most forcible manner the various phases of our work. Our second year was closed with thankful hearts for the past, and bright hopes for the future.

BOARDING HOUSE.

The success of our Boarding House, 1605 Filbert Street, is a source of unspeakable satisfaction. We regret that we can only accommodate forty boarders, since the demand is continually greater.

The duties of the House Committee require the members to pay frequent visits to the Boarding House, to look after its management, and provide for its maintenance. The chairman of this Committee reports a uniform observance of the rules of the house by the boarders.

The labors of the Admission Committee during the year have been abundant. It is the duty of this Committee to receive applications for board and examine references. This necessarily brings them into personal contact with each individual seeking admission. By this means, each member of the Committee has her protégée, for whose welfare she feels a particular interest. The recipient of such favor secures a friend whose care is akin to that of a parent. If a member of the family is thrown out of employment, her friend in the Committee assists her in obtaining a situation. During the year, several have taken positions in Christian families, where they would be more independent, more healthfully employed, and better paid than in former situations.

The marriage of one of the young ladies during the year was duly honored by the family. It was a pleasant episode, which served to show the wide difference between the Home and an ordinary boarding-house, and was a joyous family party.

The health of the family has been good, with few exceptions. Dr. W. W. Keen has very kindly given gratuitous professional attention, as heretofore, to those in need of it.

The Bible Class is still progressing with unabated interest.

This department of our work gives us the greatest possible joy. It is an entire success, and is still self-supporting, and we feel that its benign influence ought to be extended, in the establishing of similar boarding-houses in other localities. For this our Association will not cease to labor.

In calling attention to the other departments of our work, located at 139 N. Seventh Street, we mention, first,

THE DINING ROOM.

From the 21st of October, 1872, to the 28th of September 1873, there were served 27,635 meals. A substantial dinner of meat and vegetables can be had for from ten to twenty cents; a bowl of soup, with bread, for five cents. The Committee having charge of the supplies says, "We have given almost numberless meals to the penniless hungry ones, and lodged gratuitously those who have no home."

It will be seen that to serve over one hundred meals between the hours of twelve and two o'clock, will require much help and celerity of movement. One of our great needs is a larger dining-room. In the judgment of the Committee, the ability to serve two hundred meals a day would not exceed the average demand.

Two or three members of the Dining Room Committee are in attendance every day during these hours. It is by this constant supervision that the Managers have been able to secure prompt and satisfactory attention to those seeking meals. While thus in attendance, ladies are enabled to make the acquaintance of many, and show them friendly attention. If space would allow, we could add many incidents from the monthly reports of this committee, to show how our labors are appreciated. The testimony uniformly is, that since the opening of our rooms, those who have daily availed themselves of them have improved in health, and are able to attend to their duties with more energy and satisfaction.

TEMPORARY LODGING DEPARTMENT.

The Committee report this department, in connection with the DINING-ROOM, a source of great satisfaction. Here women who are temporarily out of employment, and women who come to our city seeking work, may find all the comforts of home at a very moderate charge. Two thousand one hundred and eighty-nine lodgings have been furnished in the past eleven months. We could not do without this department.

EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT.

We are glad to report the labors of the Employment Committee, for the past year, as not without good results to many sad, sorrowing and needy ones, as the following extracts from the monthly reports will show.

“As our work seems not to be thoroughly understood, we beg to state the following: We do not keep an intelligence office for the benefit of ladies. Our object is, to help poor and unfortunate women of all ages and classes who need employment, and we call upon all persons who are interested in such work to aid us. They can do so in this way: if they have vacancies in their families, stores, or manufacturing establishments, we ask them to offer those places to us, that we may the more easily and satisfactorily give employment to those who are obliged to work; and that they may still further aid us in this noble work, we modestly and confidently suggest the payment of one dollar for the privilege of the office for six months, promising nothing, but doing all we can to furnish good reliable help for that length of time. If they secure a person as teacher, copyist, nurse, or servant, we are thoroughly glad; if not, the dollar goes to the expenses of the office, or the general purposes of the Association. Now we ask, is not this a well-digested plan of operation, and a good opportunity for active Christian benevolence, with some chance of compensation in this life, beside the sure promise to those who give even a cup of cold water in the name of the Master. . . .

"To give employment simply is one view taken; to furnish help, and good, reliable help, is another, and with some the only one. A little thought, however, will show to any reflective mind, that in the doing of this work is involved the exercise of all the Christian graces, as well as tact and worldly wisdom.

"One day a half-clad woman comes in, with a tale of desertion and sorrow that makes the heart ache. In the arms, or led by the hand, is probably a little child. What is to be done for her? Who will admit sadness and sorrow to their bright homes? There are such, thank God, and we must find them. While her name is being registered, another enters—young and inexperienced, the eldest of the family, father delicate, and getting low wages. She wants to help him and her mother to take care of the little ones. Tears chase each other down her cheeks, as she falteringly tells her errand, and closes with, "I never asked such a thing before!" Oh, how heartily we wish our house was large enough to take her in, and the pale-faced woman and the baby! But houses are not so elastic as hearts, and we must turn to our books for assistance.

"Another day a poor sinful girl comes to us, acknowledging her guilt, and begging us to save her from herself and her abandoned life. She must be cared for; sent to the Midnight Mission, or the Woman's Hospital, or the Magdalen Asylum. Who can tell what has been her history or temptations? Who dare say, had I been surrounded by like circumstances, I would not have fallen? 'O, what a rarity is Christian charity' in such cases! Then we have a class of applicants who cherish some fearful secret. A case in point is now before us. Two sisters, girls of 25 and 17 years,—they are orphans—came from Chicago expecting to meet a friend, but were disappointed. They were sent to us from the depot. They are willing to do anything—bear unmistakable signs of ability and refinement, but are enveloped in mystery, shy, diffident, and hugging with great tenacity some darling secret which no one can induce them to disclose.

"It may be asked, is this the legitimate work of the Employment Committee? We answer, it necessarily comes with it. Sorrow and suffering inevitably accompany the unemployed—crime and misery go hand in hand with idleness. It is a great work, and we feel our inability to do it all and well; but who can tell how many golden threads have been woven into the web of life through our efforts? how much of sunshine we may have thrown into dark and desolate places? how many feet we may have turned from the way that leads to the chambers of death? Who can estimate the lightening of burdens, the hushing of sighs, the drying of tears, the slaking of thirst, and the relief from hunger directly or indirectly accomplished through our influence?

"We are glad to report a steady improvement in the class of persons applying for employment. This is attributable to our system of reference, which is universally respected. We are gratified also by the expressions of sympathy and commendation which reach us from many sources. And just here, we wish to make honorable mention of the fact, that so many ladies and gentlemen, wholly strangers to us personally, have entered into our labors, and in word and deed, with pen and purse, assisted and encouraged us. We have many faithful allies, many silent partners, whose names do not appear in our Committee, but will be found recorded among those of whom it is written, 'Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.' It may not be realized by the Board, that our rooms are altogether inadequate for our operations; and while we shall endeavor to be patient, as we know other departments are suffering with us, we sincerely hope, and earnestly request, that our accommodations may be improved as soon as practicable."

The books of this branch give the following statistics :

Applicants for help, for the year,	. . .	2,101

INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT.

This department was organized for the purpose of giving instruction in plain sewing, and in the use of the sewing machine. A competent teacher is employed by the Managers for this purpose. A certificate of proficiency is furnished to those who deserve it.

We wish the Managers and the members of the Association, and our friends generally, to bear in mind, that in this department they can have sewing done on moderate terms, and that a portion of the charge is given to the pupil. Several have availed themselves of the instructions of this school during the past year. It is hoped the coming year may witness a much larger attendance. This school of instruction is really a most important avenue of usefulness, which needs only to be known to be appreciated.

When we purchased and fitted up the property, No. 139 N. Seventh Street, we thought we had provided for all the present necessities of our work. But in a few months it became apparent that our borders were too circumscribed. It was evident we needed and must have more room. Providentially at this time the lot adjoining our house on the north was offered to us for $10,500. We took counsel with judicious friends, and decided to purchase it. Benevolent contributions were received from our Managers and friends.

Through the efforts of our President, with the assistance of several of the Managers, two concerts were given. By request, Prof. W. G. Fischer assumed the management with his well-known energy and enthusiasm for every good work. He was assisted by gifted ladies and gentlemen of this city (amateurs), and we regard the financial proceeds of over $3,000 from these two concerts as a contribution from them.

Mrs. T. L. Jewett, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, gave a parlor concert at her house, by which was realized $240.

Messrs. A. B. Carver & Co., conveyancers, attended to the purchase, and made out the deeds and other papers for us; and placed us under renewed obligations, by declining any pecuniary compensation for their labor and advice. The remaining indebtedness on this property is $3,000.

The Building Committee have had an estimate made of the cost of the additions so imperatively demanded, and are empowered to commence building as soon as practicable. For this improvement we need $10,000, for which we look to the same generous public who have so heartily aided in our past labors.

VISITING COMMITTEE.

It remains now only to speak of the labors of the Visiting Committee, to complete the enumeration of our year's work. This Committee has the whole city for a parish. Its chief labors during the year have been with the unfortunate inmates of our prisons, and with the blind at Wills' Hospital and the Industrial Home for the Blind. The wail of distress, the cry of the needy, the appeal for help, is never made to this Committee in vain. To labor efficiently in this field, one needs have command of money to relieve present wants and suffering. The most precious truths of the Gospel are unheeded when the stomach is clamorous for food. Bread first, then we can reach the spiritual needs.

During the past few months, many cases of extreme destitution have fallen under the notice of this Committee. Some in need of food, some destitute of homes to shelter them, some sick and in need of medical treatment. Each and all have been furnished the relief needed.

Members of this Committee visit weekly at Moyamensing Prison, three times a week at Wills' Hospital, and weekly readings have been sustained at the Industrial Home for the Blind. It is a joy to minister to the blind. How eagerly they watch for these visits, particularly on Sundays; how they listen and drink in the precious truths of the blessed Word of God!

We regard this as a wide field for usefulness. Our present work is only preparatory. In the future, we hope to materially extend our labors, mindful of the sweet words of the divine Master, who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

In this retrospective glance over the labors of the year, we would not be unmindful of the unabated zeal of the members of the Association, nor of the sympathy and support given us by many generous friends. We desire to put on record our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for the encouragement thus bestowed. We refer the readers to other portions of our Report, for a detailed statement of donations and subscriptions.

We have found it good to toil thus in the vineyard of the divine Master. We rejoice with humility at the prosperity which has attended our efforts.

We earnestly urge our sisters in all the churches to join with us, and give at least the annual fee of one dollar to the cause, with an invocation for the divine blessing upon the crumb which is thus cast upon the waters. Think, sisters, sixty thousand daily workers needing sympathy and friendship.

In our churches there must be more than two hundred thousand professed followers of the blessed Saviour. Shall there be any lack of funds for the enlargement of this good work? The Managers look confidently to you for all the means needed to carry it on, until every working woman in Philadelphia shall be able to have a warm midday meal, and every homeless toiler shall have a home, and friends to shield her from temptation and crime.
